

4 WOMEN INJURED BY RUNAWAY HORSE IN BROOKLYN DASH

One Believed Hurt Internally
—Policeman Braves Death to Stop Animal.

A runaway horse attached to a light delivery wagon knocked down and injured four women during a twelve-block dash through Graham Avenue, Brooklyn, to-day.

The victims were Miss Mary Donegan, nineteen, of No. 764 Graham Avenue, and Miss Josephine Kenney, twenty-two, of No. 609 Boerum Street, struck by the wagon on Montrose Avenue, and Miss Evan Moulder, and her sister, Miss Matilda, of No. 722 Metropolitan Avenue, run down at Stage Street.

All of the women were cut and bruised about the head and body and it was feared that Miss Matilda Moulder was hurt internally. The four were attended by an ambulance surgeon of St. Catherine's Hospital and taken home.

where he forced it to the sidewalk and stopped it.

Robito was charged with felonious assault and reckless driving. He was to be arraigned in Bridge Plaza Court on the former charge and in Traffic Court on the latter.

YOUTH ARRESTED, ADMITS ROBBERIES

Carlberg Wanted for Theft of Car and Jumping Bail.

Arthur Carlberg, nineteen, of the Tombs, charged with the theft of an automobile in Jacksonville, Fla., and of jumping a $500 bail bond for alleged violation of the Volstead act, has confessed to the police that he committed several robberies on Long Island.

Carlberg admitted having robbed the home of George A. Meyers, at Great Neck, L. I., of several thousand dollars' worth of wearing apparel. It is believed he had a part in the robbery of the Nassau County Country Club. He was held in $2,000 bail for examination to-morrow.

LITHOGRAPHIC FIRMS APPLY FOR INJUNCTION

Charge Strikers With Acts of Violence in Strike.

Counsel for thirteen lithographic firms to-day asked Justice Dike in Brooklyn Supreme Court for an injunction temporarily restraining Albert Castro, President of Local No. 1, Amalgamated Lithographers of America, from acts of violence in the strike which has been in progress for fifteen weeks. Decision was reserved.

Counsel for the strikers denied any violence against employees and declared the companies had employed "strong arm" men to attack and stir up trouble with the strikers.

WIDOW LOSES POINT IN BURTON WILL SUIT

NEWBURGH, April 25.—Elwood C. Smith, Surrogate of Orange County, to-day appointed former Gov. Benjamin R. Odell, Anson J. Fowler and John G. Wilkin temporary administrators of the estate of the late Frank W. Burton, denying the application of Mrs. Claire Burton, widow, for appointment.

The estate is valued at $1,200,000. Burton, who was a member of the firm of Burton Brothers & Co. of New York, cut off his widow. She will contest.

BROADCAST RADIO APPEAL FOR ILLINOIS FLOOD SUFFERERS. Thousands of radio enthusiasts of this and other cities listened in last night on the first appeal ever made by radio for a stricken city. The appeal was broadcast by WJZ, the Westinghouse station at Newark, N. J., for the flood sufferers of Beardstown, Ill., where the waters of the Illinois River broke the levee and flooded the city to a depth of 8 to 10 feet.

"We have seen The Billboard grow from a baby. Judging from its healthy growth and splendid maturity it must have come from a good origin. We have enjoyed it regularly as it grew."

The Billboard

has grown in the esteem and friendship of the theatre folks because it is the best digest of all the theatrical news and because it has always been the best friend of the show people. It is read "from cover to cover" by practically everybody of the amusement world every week.

The weekly circulation of THE BILLBOARD is three times greater than the combined circulations of all other theatrical publications
